Hebrews

The Son Superior to Angels

In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and various ways, ²but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe. ³The Son is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact representation of his nature, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for himself, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. So he became as much superior to the angels as he has inherited and the heavens are the work of your hands.

¹³To which of the angels did God ever say,

"Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

¹⁴Are not all
